SECTION-B

Note: Objective/ Completion type questions. All questions are compulsory. (6x1=6)

Gandhiji's greatest strength was his belief in God. He fought for the freedom of India because he used to say that the best way to serve God was to serve His People, and therefore, when he worked for the happiness of the Indians, he was also making God happy. Many times people would put straight questions to him to give proof that there is God and how we can know Him. Gandhiji would frankly admit that he could not show God to anyone, because His presence could be felt in the heart only. He was, however, a lover of God and could not live without Him. He once said, "If you do not give me air and water, I can still live but if you take away my belief, in God, I shall die immediately."

Now answer the following questions:

Q.7 What was Gandhiji's strength?
